

I totally support this ARRL petition and all of its particulars. I believe the decline of amateur radio enthusiasm will reverse, with great enthusiasm among the younger, more digital age savvy operators providing needed enrichment of the hobby and community support.